Terms and Conditions

Fees and Charges, Conditions and Courses

Langports reserves the right to change its fees, charges and conditions, cancel or defer course, and to alter course timetables at any time without notice.

Refund Policy

Clause 1: In the event of a cancellation, no refund will be made on the enrolment fee or accommodation placement fee. All notifications of course cancellation and requests for a refund must be made to the Principal in writing. A written response will be provided in writing within five working days. Where any refund is granted, this will be paid within four weeks from the date of the notice of cancellation.

Study Cancellation:

- Cancellations received more than 4 weeks before the course commencement will normally receive a full refund of fees, subject to clause 1.
- Cancellations received less than 4 weeks before start of course will normally receive a refund of fees less a cancellation charge equal to 4 weeks of the current published tuition fee.
- Cancellations received after course commencement will not be eligible for a refund of fees.
- A full refund of fees, subject to clause 1, will be made if a visa application has been denied (proof of visa rejection from the Australian immigration authorities is required within 2 weeks from the date of notice)
- Students will be charged for any bank fees incurred in the refund of fees – a $40 bank fee applies to international bank transfers.

Accommodation Cancellation:

- Cancellations received more than 4 weeks before course commencement will normally receive a full refund of fees, subject to clause 1.
- Cancellations received less than 4 weeks before course commencement will incur a cancellation charge equal to 2 weeks rent.
- Minimum of 4 weeks homestay - no refund. If the course is 1, 2 or 3 weeks unless the course is 1, 2 or 3 weeks - no refund.
- After studies have commenced, 2 weeks notice must be given or a cancellation charge equal to 2 weeks rent will apply. Any unused accommodation fees will be refunded to the student within 2 weeks of submitting a refund request form.

Airport Greeting:

No refund will be made if the student fails to notify Langports of their flight details or any change of details 48 hours before arrival.

Cancellation of course by Langports

If Langports cancels a course, you will be offered a refund of all the course money you have paid to date. The refund will be paid to you within 2 weeks of the course cancellation. Alternatively, you may be offered enrolment in an alternative course at Langports at no extra cost to you. You have the right to choose whether you would prefer a full refund of course fees, or to accept a place in another course. If you choose placement in another course, we will ask you to sign a document to indicate that you accept the placement. If in the unlikely event that Langports ceases to operate and is unable to provide a full refund, students may be placed in an alternative course by our Tuition Assurance Scheme (TAS) English Australia at no extra cost to you. Finally, if the English Australia TAS can not place you in a suitable alternative course, the ESOS Assurance Fund Manager will attempt to place you in a suitable alternative course or, if this is not possible, you will be eligible for a refund as calculated by the Fund Manager.

Deferment Policy

Students must start their course on their allocated start date, except in exceptional special circumstances.

Students that wish to defer their start date and their course must give one week's written notice. If notice is less than one week Langports will charge one week's tuition fee. Students that do not arrive on the designated start date and do not give notice of deferment will automatically lose one week's tuition fees and their course will not be extended. If notice of deferment is not received within 48 hours after course commencement the course may be cancelled.

Transfer between colleges

- Students wishing to transfer between colleges must study for a minimum of 2 weeks at each campus.
- Students studying in the IEP or Cambridge courses cannot transfer between campuses during their course. They may take a UFO course at one campus and transfer to the other campus for Cambridge or IEP and visa versa.
- Langports will pay the cost of a single, one-way transfer between campuses.

Other Conditions of Enrolment

- Students are required to notify Langports of any change of local address, while enrolled in a course, within 3 working days.
- Students under the age of 18 must agree to Langports' welfare arrangements outlined in a separate letter.
- Students are fully responsible for their educational and living expenses while studying at Langports.
- Students who have any school-aged dependants accompanying them will be required to pay full fees at a private or government school in Queensland.
- Information is collected on this form and during your enrolment in order to meet our obligations under the ESOS Act and the National Code 2007, and to ensure student compliance with the conditions of their visas and their obligations under Australian immigration laws generally. The authority to collect this information is contained in the Education Services for Overseas Students Act 2000, the Education Services for Overseas Students Regulations 2001 and the National Code of Practice for Registration Authorities and Providers of Education and Training to Overseas Students 2007. Information collected about you on this form and during your enrolment can be provided, in certain circumstances, to the Australian Government and designated authorities and, if relevant, the Tuition Assurance Scheme and the ESOS Assurance Fund Manager. In other instances information collected on this form or during your enrolment can be disclosed without your consent where authorised or required by law.
- Students consent to Langports making reasonable enquiries to DIAC regarding their visa and to sharing these details with Government and health Insurers for the purpose of ensuring that visa conditions for staying in Australia are maintained.
- Langports has the right to share information about your course and progress with your sponsor, university or college or educational representative.
- Any photos or video footage taken at Langports or by Langports staff of Langports students are the property of Langports and may be used in reproduction of materials for promotional use without consent.
- Langports, and its representatives and staff will not be held liable for any loss, damages, death, illness or injuries to people or property which occurs whilst students are on any activity or excursion organised by Langports. It is the student's sole responsibility to take out insurance against such risks and we recommend that students travelling abroad take out comprehensive travel, accident and medical insurance in their own countries.
- By providing their private email address on this form or the Langports registration form, students accept that they are giving permission to Langports to communicate with them on any matters relating to their enrolment at Langports.
- Entry to the following Langports' courses require a pre-requisite level of English; IEP, Cambridge FCE, CAE and CPE.
- Students attending the UFO course will be tested on commencement of the course in order to be placed in a class at the appropriate level.
- Students must complete all class work, assignments, activities and assessments in order to maintain satisfactory academic progress.
- Students are required to maintain a minimum of 80% attendance in order to receive a certificate on graduation and students studying on a student visa can be reported to the Department of Immigration and Citizenship (DIAC) if they fail to maintain this attendance.
- Students are required to abide by the Langports Code of Conduct, available in the Student Information booklet and on the Langports' website.
- Langports has an internal complaints and appeals process and students can access this through the Student Services Department.
- Additional information about students' rights and responsibilities under the Australian Government ESOS Act 2000 and National Code 2007 is available online at: http://aei.dest.gov.au/AEI/ESOS/Quickinfo/ESOS_Framework_pdf.pdf
- This agreement and the availability of complaints and appeals processes, does not remove the right to take further action under Australia's consumer protection laws; neither does it remove a student's right to pursue other legal remedies.
